ACTIVITY

◆ LOATHING ◆

“Loathing! There’s a strange exhilaration in such total detestation [...]”

- Elphaba and Galinda

When required to share a room together at Shiz University, Galinda and Elphaba are forced to confront the way they feel about each other. They both write home to their families, describing their situation.

Have your students place themselves in Elphaba or Galinda’s shoes. Have students work in groups of 3 to role play an attempt at resolving their conflict. Have one student play Elphaba, one student play Galinda and one student play the mediator.
